Time in Transit's self-titled release features ten original compositions by New York-based saxophonist Glenn White. Time in Transit features White with New York notables Casper Gyldensoe (guitar), Dmitry Ishenko (bass), and Rob Mitzner (drums).

An exciting balance of modern jazz harmonies with melodic and rhythmic influences from rock and beyond, Time in Transit's music is the statement of four skilled, creative musicians reaching beyond their individual voices, giving strength to a cohesive collective. This album contains intricate arrangements balanced with the sheer, creative abandon of skilled musicians doing what they do best.

Time in Transit

"Time in Transit lives up to the sterling reputation that jazz bands from NYC have maintained for decades."
